

“A World Beyond Violence”
2008 California
Department of Peace Conference
7:00 p.m. Friday August 1, 2008
through 12:30p.m. Sunday August 3, 2008
University of California, Berkeley

Our campaign to establish a cabinet level U.S. Department of Peace and Nonviolence (“DOPN”) has grown into a true “movement”. Join us at our California Conference in August, to learn practical, concrete ways you can help transform the current prevalence of violence into a culture of peace. This year we are hearing about both “change” and “hope” from the candidates running for office. It’s time for both. Join us at Berkeley in August to help create “A World Beyond Violence”.

YOU WILL BE:

- ENLIGHTENED by Marianne Williamson, best-selling author, political visionary and spiritual advisor on Oprah’s XM radio station, in her Friday evening keynote “The Politics of Possibility”
- INSPIRED by Aqeela Sherrills, peace advocate and mediator, who brokered the 1992 peace agreement between longtime Los Angeles gang rivals, the Bloods and the Crips
- EDUCATED by Lynn McMullen, DOPN National Campaign Consultant, about how we can best organize and train ourselves to support passage of H.R. 808 to establish a cabinet level U.S. Department of Peace and Nonviolence
- EXCITED by our Saturday panel of on-the-ground experts discussing working and proven solutions to violence in our homes, schools, streets and prisons
- ENCOURAGED by 18 year old Nicole Nabulsi, California organizer for the Student Peace Alliance speaking on the growing role of high school and college students in peace-building across the U.S.
- ENTERTAINED by the unique perspectives of Swami Beyondananda !
